Edgar Nazarenus, Capufaktur e.V., Public Relations

Edgar Nazarenus is a student of Psychology at the University of Greifswald, a business consultant at Capufaktur e.V. and a certified JADE Trainer.

He worked on several projects and is responsible for public relations at his junior enterprise.

Embarking on the journey of becoming the greatest version of himself, he is ready for responsibility and eager to achieve the goals he has set for himself.

Vincent Weseloh, Capufaktur e.V., Member of the board – Finance

The 21-year-old Vincent Weseloh is a business and science of communication student at the university of Greifswald.

Besides University he is working as business consultant at the local Junior Enterprise Capufaktur e.V.. He is member of the board of Capufaktur and is currently responsible for its finances.

Working on different projects gave him a wider perspective which cannot be experienced in the regular university life.

Ambitions and curiosity are the reasons he decided to go this unusual but fruitful path for a student.
