

Peter Schenk

Directorate General for Regional and Urban Policy

European Commission

---

Peter Schenk is since 2014 coordinating the EU Strategy for the Baltic Sea Region in the European Commission (Directorate General for Regional and Urban Policy). During 1999-2014 he held positions in various Commission departments, dealing with State Aid control, the EU Solidarity Fund and European cross-border cooperation programmes. Before moving to Brussels, he worked on regional policy issues in the German Federal Ministry of Economic Affairs. He studied Economics at the University of Munich and European Studies at the College of Europe in Bruges, Belgium.