

Anne Stenros

Design Director, City of Helsinki

Dr. Anne Stenros CDO is a thought leader on design thinking and creative leadership, speaking and lecturing around the world.

Anne Stenros graduated as Master of Architecture from the Univ. of Oulu and the Univ. of California, Berkeley. She has the doctorate in technology in the field of architectural theory. She has acted as a Managing Director of Design Forum Finland between 1995-2004 and the Executive Director of Hong Kong Design Centre in 2005. During the years 2005-2015, she was the Design Director at KONE Corporation, a world leading elevator and escalator company. Since September 2016 she has been appointed as the chief design officer CDO of the city of Helsinki. She has been rewarded with The Gold Estlander Medal (2015) and The Gold Medal of the City of Helsinki (2013).