

Alessandro Cenderello

Managing Partner for EU Institutions, Ernst & Young

---

For more than 20 years Alessandro has been working with government and public sector organisations in strategy design and programme management, delivering value to businesses and citizens.

He has directed several projects in different policy fields: transportation, infrastructures, environment, SMEs, entrepreneurship and digitally-enabled innovation. He has also acquired a specific expertise in impact assessment and evaluation of public policies and the management of Structural and Investment Funds.