

Gunārs Ansinš

Deputy Mayor, City of Liepāja

“Remember, one person is not a fighter, we all together create our big home – cities around the Baltic Sea.” – Gunārs Ansinš, the Vice-chairman of Liepāja City Council.

Gunārs Ansinš was born on December 8, 1970 in Liepāja, Latvia. A member of the regional party “Liepājas partija”. He has Master’s degree in Environmental science and administration.

He works in Liepāja City Council since 1994 and has taken the positions of the head of Environmental Department, the head of Foreign Relations Department, the project coordinator and the head of the Development Department. Elected to the City Council since 2005 and to the position of the Vice-chairman of Liepāja City Council. He is also alternate member of the EU Committee of the Regions.

As a Senior Project Manager has lead several big budget projects important for the development of his native city - Liepāja.