

Shakespeare in love

Choose one of the following exercises. Remember that your own reflections are important especially if you are aiming for the higher grades.

- Write about one episode in the film that you liked or touched you. Describe the episode and write why you chose it. Also write your thoughts and feelings.
- Describe one of the main characters. Who is s/he? What do you think about him/her?
- Write a page in a diary. Pretend that you are one of the main characters in the film.

Shakespeare in love

Choose one of the following exercises. Remember that your own reflections are important especially if you are aiming for the higher grades.

- Write about one episode in the film that you liked or touched you. Describe the episode and write why you chose it. Also write your thoughts and feelings.
- Describe one of the main characters. Who is s/he? What do you think about him/her?
- Write a page in a diary. Pretend that you are one of the main characters in the film.

